Mr. Smith will serve a partial term expiring September 30, 2020.

Mayor Fuller again called for Citizen Comments. There were no other requests to speak to Council.

Mayor Fuller called for Council and Manager Comments.

Council Member Shemwell recognized a homeless individual named Gary who recently passed away and the many citizens of McKinney who offered him assistance; acknowledged different people are homeless for different reasons.

City Manager Paul Grimes mentioned the recent hail storm and announced the city Outdoor Warning Siren System serves to notify people of potential hazards beyond just tornadoes; warned of potential issues related to door-to-door solicitors of home repair work after the storms and reminded residents that ask to see the required city-issued permit. All roofing projects also require a permit visible from the street. Mr. Grimes encouraged everyone to use the city website for additional information.

Mayor Fuller, Mayor Pro Tem Rath and Council Members Philips, Elliott, and Rogers had no comments.

There was no Executive session.

Council unanimously approved the motion by Council Member Shemwell, seconded by Council Member Scott Elliott, to adjourn. Mayor Fuller adjourned the meeting at 6:52 p.m.
